

Corazon tan blanco (Spanish Edition)

Pocos meses despues de su viaje de novios y sin aun haber podido, o querido, adaptarse a su cambio de estado, Juan Ranz se entera casi sin querer de que Teresa, la primera mujer de su padre, se quito la vida al regreso de su propia luna de miel. Solo una persona conoce el porque y ha guardado durante anos ese oscuro secreto. A partir de ese momento, el narrador sentira un creciente malestar, presentimientos de desastres respecto a su recién inaugurado matrimonio. Una extraordinaria novela sobre el secreto y su posible conveniencia; sobre la instigacion y la sospecha que, poco a poco, van teniendo los corazones tan blancos hasta que estos dejan de serlo. Merecedora del Premio de la Critica 1993, del Prix I Oeil et la Lettre 1993, y del Premio Internacional de Literatura IMPAC de Dublin 1997, Corazon tan blanco ha sido considerada unánimemente por la critica nacional e internacional como uno de los libros perdurables de la literatura contemporanea. Es una novela tan brillante que no hay ninguna en la actualidad que pueda compararsele.
