

Heaven-high and Hell-deep (Laines Beech Mountain Story, Book 1)

Laine, a fifteen-year-old girl living in the early 1900s, takes you along on her unexpected trip into womanhood. She knows God handed her a life of hardship, especially when her Dad gives her away in marriage to a man she doesn't know. However, she proves to be a true mountain girl with spirit, determination, feistiness and fiery spunk. Laine's unabashed account of events, before and during the first months of her marriage, draws the reader spellbound into a story that will linger like mists shrouding distant mountains.
